Hi Pizza LLC ("Hi Pizza," "we," "us") Effective date: September 18, 2026

This notice applies to hipizza.net, the Hi Pizza online ordering website, and the Hi Pizza mobile app. It explains what personal information we collect, how we use it, and the choices you have.

1. Our website (hipizza.net)

hipizza.net is an informational website and does not ask you to enter personal information.

The website may use third-party services:

Google Analytics and Google Ads tags. These set cookies and record information such as the pages you view, how you arrived at the website, the buttons you click, your browser and device type, and your approximate location (city-level, based on your IP address). We use this to understand how the website is used and to measure whether our Google advertising results in visits and orders. Google's use of this information is described in the Google Privacy Policy and How Google uses information from sites that use its services.

Hosting and infrastructure. Like any website, hipizza.net is delivered by hosting and content-delivery providers that automatically receive standard request information, such as your IP address, browser type, and the pages requested, in order to serve the website and protect it from abuse.

2. Ordering, rewards, the app, and feedback

Online ordering, payments, the rewards program, the Hi Pizza mobile app, and the customer feedback form are provided for us by HungerRush. HungerRush processes this information on our behalf. The ordering website and app also link to HungerRush's own privacy policy, which describes HungerRush's practices as a company.

When you place an order, create an account, join rewards, or send us feedback, we collect the information needed to serve you, which may include your name, phone number, email address, delivery address, order history, rewards activity, and the feedback you send.

We use this information to prepare and deliver your orders, run the rewards program, respond to your questions and feedback, and, if you have given us your email address or phone number, to send you offers and news about Hi Pizza.

Payment cards. Card payments are processed by HungerRush's payment service.

Sharing. We share personal information only with the service providers who help us operate the business, such as our ordering, payment, delivery, and marketing providers, and as required by law. For delivery orders, this includes giving the delivery provider your name, address, and phone number so they can bring you your order. We do not sell personal information.

3. Your choices
